Lake Washington UMC All-Church Retreat May 14-16, 2010

Whether you've been around LWUMC for a while or are new to our church family – the retreat is a great way to meet new friends and get to know others in a relaxed setting.

The retreat is at Lazy F Camp and Retreat Center in the scenic Manastash Canyon near Ellensburg. You can anticipate a weekend full of fun, learning, worship and fellowship and all in a beautiful setting. If you can't come for the entire weekend, join us for any part of the weekend.

"The Art of Being in the Moment" is the theme for this year's retreat. It's the focus for the Saturday morning program time. During the rest of the day and on Sunday we'll be encouraged to practice it as we play, sing, and worship together.

Register and pay in full by March 28 and get a $15 discount per family or $5 discount per single.

Deadline for registration: Wednesday, May 5.

- Adult Program
For all adults on Saturday morning. Leaders from LWUMC.
- Children's Program
Lazy F Program staff lead the Saturday morning program for children sixth grade and younger. We'll also have childcare for the very young. (infants to 3)
- Youth Group Retreat
It's the youth group's Spring Retreat. They'll have their own accommodations in Trading Post. Lazy F program staff will lead youth on the Challenge Course. Youth can come with their parents or carpool with others. Register using this form.
- Accommodations
We will do our very best to house you in the accommodations of your choice. Families with infants and/or toddlers, and persons with disabilities will be given first priority for Skyline. Register by April 4 to be included in the lottery for Skyline.

Schedule

The All-Church Retreat is structured for fun, relaxation, worship, renewal and deepening our relationships with God and one another. Below is the outline for our time together.
